Today on Spin Talk Lauren spoke to Socialist TD Ruth Coppinger about plans for an Abortion Pill Bus to drive around Ireland next week. it's being organised by a reproductive-rights group Rosa

The Abortion Pill Bus will give information to women about how to get morning after pills.

It will leave Dublin on Friday and travel to Galway, Limerick, Cork and Kilkenny.

You can listen back to Ruth Coppinger's interview here

SpinTalk asked you for your thoughts on abortion pills and what you think about this protest idea.

First up we spoke to Aoife who is pregnant herself but doesn't agree with abortion,

Then we spoke to Sheena who recently lost a baby. Sheena told us that she had to carry her baby until he died before anyone could help her.

We also spoke to Linda. Linda had her baby in August. She found out during her pregnancy that her baby had a condition and he would need treatment after birth. Linda says she would have liked a choice.
